

CYBERLAW CLINIC HAPPY HOUR

Thursday, March 27, 2014

4 pm – 6 pm

HLS Pub, WCC

Are you eager to explore issues relating to copyright and new media? Passionate about privacy, youth online safety, and digital civil liberties? Interested in how government can use technology to promote innovation and access to justice? Do you want to help startups, software developers, advocacy groups, researchers, and others achieve their business goals and social missions online? Join attorneys from Harvard Law School's Cyberlaw Clinic for a happy hour and learn more about the Clinic's cutting-edge work. Clinical registration for the 2014-15 academic year takes place April 2nd and 3rd, and students interested in enrolling should feel free to attend with questions about the enrollment process and the day-to-day activities of Clinic students. And, those not looking to enroll should feel free to come just to join in the conversation!

CYBERLAW CLINIC

Harvard Law School | Berkman Center for Internet & Society

