

Audience & Participation Workshop

July 27, 2012

Co-Chairs, Carla Hayden, Nate Hill, Peggy Rudd

Enoch Pratt free Library, Poe Room
400 Cathedral Street, Baltimore, MD

- 8:30 AM Arrival and Continental breakfast
- 9:00 AM Welcome and introductions
Carla Hayden, CEO, Enoch Pratt free Library
- 9:15 AM DPLA Overview
Maura Marx, DPLA Secretariat
- 9:30 AM Use case review
Led by Nate Hill and Mike Barker, participants will discuss and determine ways in which the existing use cases will fit into the DPLA's long-term set of core activities and functionalities, bearing in mind the DPLA's likely technical and content infrastructure. This conversation will inform a report addressed to the Technical Aspects workstream.
- 10:45 AM Break
- 11:00 AM Use case review (continued)
Led by Nate Hill and Mike Barker
- 12:00 PM Lunch
Also available will be an optional tour of the library (approx 12:30 — 1:00pm).
- 1:00 PM Expanding the use cases
Led by Nate Hill and Mike Barker
Thinking more broadly about other types of users: What additional uses and functionalities should be included long-term (2-5 years) in the DPLA front-end?
- 2:45 PM Break
- 3:00 PM Review key elements
Led by Nate Hill and Mike Barker
Discussion of use cases' key elements, including front-end functional requirements and features, and charting next steps.
- 4:00 PM Workshop ends, Wrap-up and Farewell
Carla Hayden, CEO, Enoch Pratt free Library
- 4:00 PM – 6:00 PM Wine and hors d'oeuvres reception
Everyone is cordially invited to a wine and hors d'oeuvres reception in the Board Room. Also available will be an optional after hours tour of the library (approx 4:30 — 5:00pm).

<http://www.natehill.net/dplausecases/index.html>

Twitter: #dpla

Facebook: <http://www.facebook.com/theDPLA>