- Club Z! In-Home Tutoring

  - 617-876-3400
Club Z! offers a learning disability instruction and support program right in the privacy of the students home. It is Club Z!'s experience that students with learning disabilities achieve greater benefits when tutoring is performed in the child's home. This is particularly important for learning disabled students who do not cope well in crowded, often chaotic surroundings such as their classroom or group therapy. Individualized home tutoring in a controlled environment helps restore confidence in a learning disabled student and enables them to more efficiently reach their full potential. Club Z! speech therapists can offer relief and assistance for a wide variety of auditory troubles, including stuttering, articulation difficulties such as mumbling, receptive and expressive language problems, and dysphagia (swallowing problems).
