

Student “Definite Detention” Sit-Out

WHAT:

- National “Definite Detention” student sit-in demanding that Congress restore habeas
- Student dressed in Guantanamo orange sits in prominent campus location with “HABEAS NOW!” sign

WHEN:

- Starts Wednesday, April 25th: noon(EST)-8pm [Please start @ noon EST, but use your own clock after]
- Continues all day Thursday, April 26th: 8am-5pm
- Culminates Friday, April 27th: 8am-noon, eve of the 3rd anniversary of Abu Ghraib photos and impunity
- OR: Round the clock Wednesday-Friday, if your campus has the people and enthusiasm to sustain it

WHO:

- Student activists
- Only one student sitter is needed (more the merrier) with others nearby for support, petitions, or photos

HOW:

- Action coordinated so that by noon (EST) on April 25th, campuses across the country have identical protests
- Photographs taken first thing at each place and sent to a media team ready with press release calling attention to national student movement urging Congress to use May opportunity to restore habeas corpus
- Email photos by 1pm (EST) to habeasnow@gmail.com
- Students create a timesheet in preparation for the action with everyone taking responsibility for a few hours over the four days. The minimum hours add up to only 24 total to divide up.
- At each “changing of the detainee,” person sitting with the sign hands off orange jumpsuit to the next
- Orange jumpsuits are available online(e.g. http://www.nationaltextile.us/correctional_clothing) [rush order!]

WHERE (possible locations):

- American University

- Berkeley

- Columbia

- CUNY

- Georgetown

- Harvard

- NYU

- Seton Hall

- UCLA

- University of Virginia

- Yale

