

Courtesy, the Ralph Waldo Emerson Memorial Association

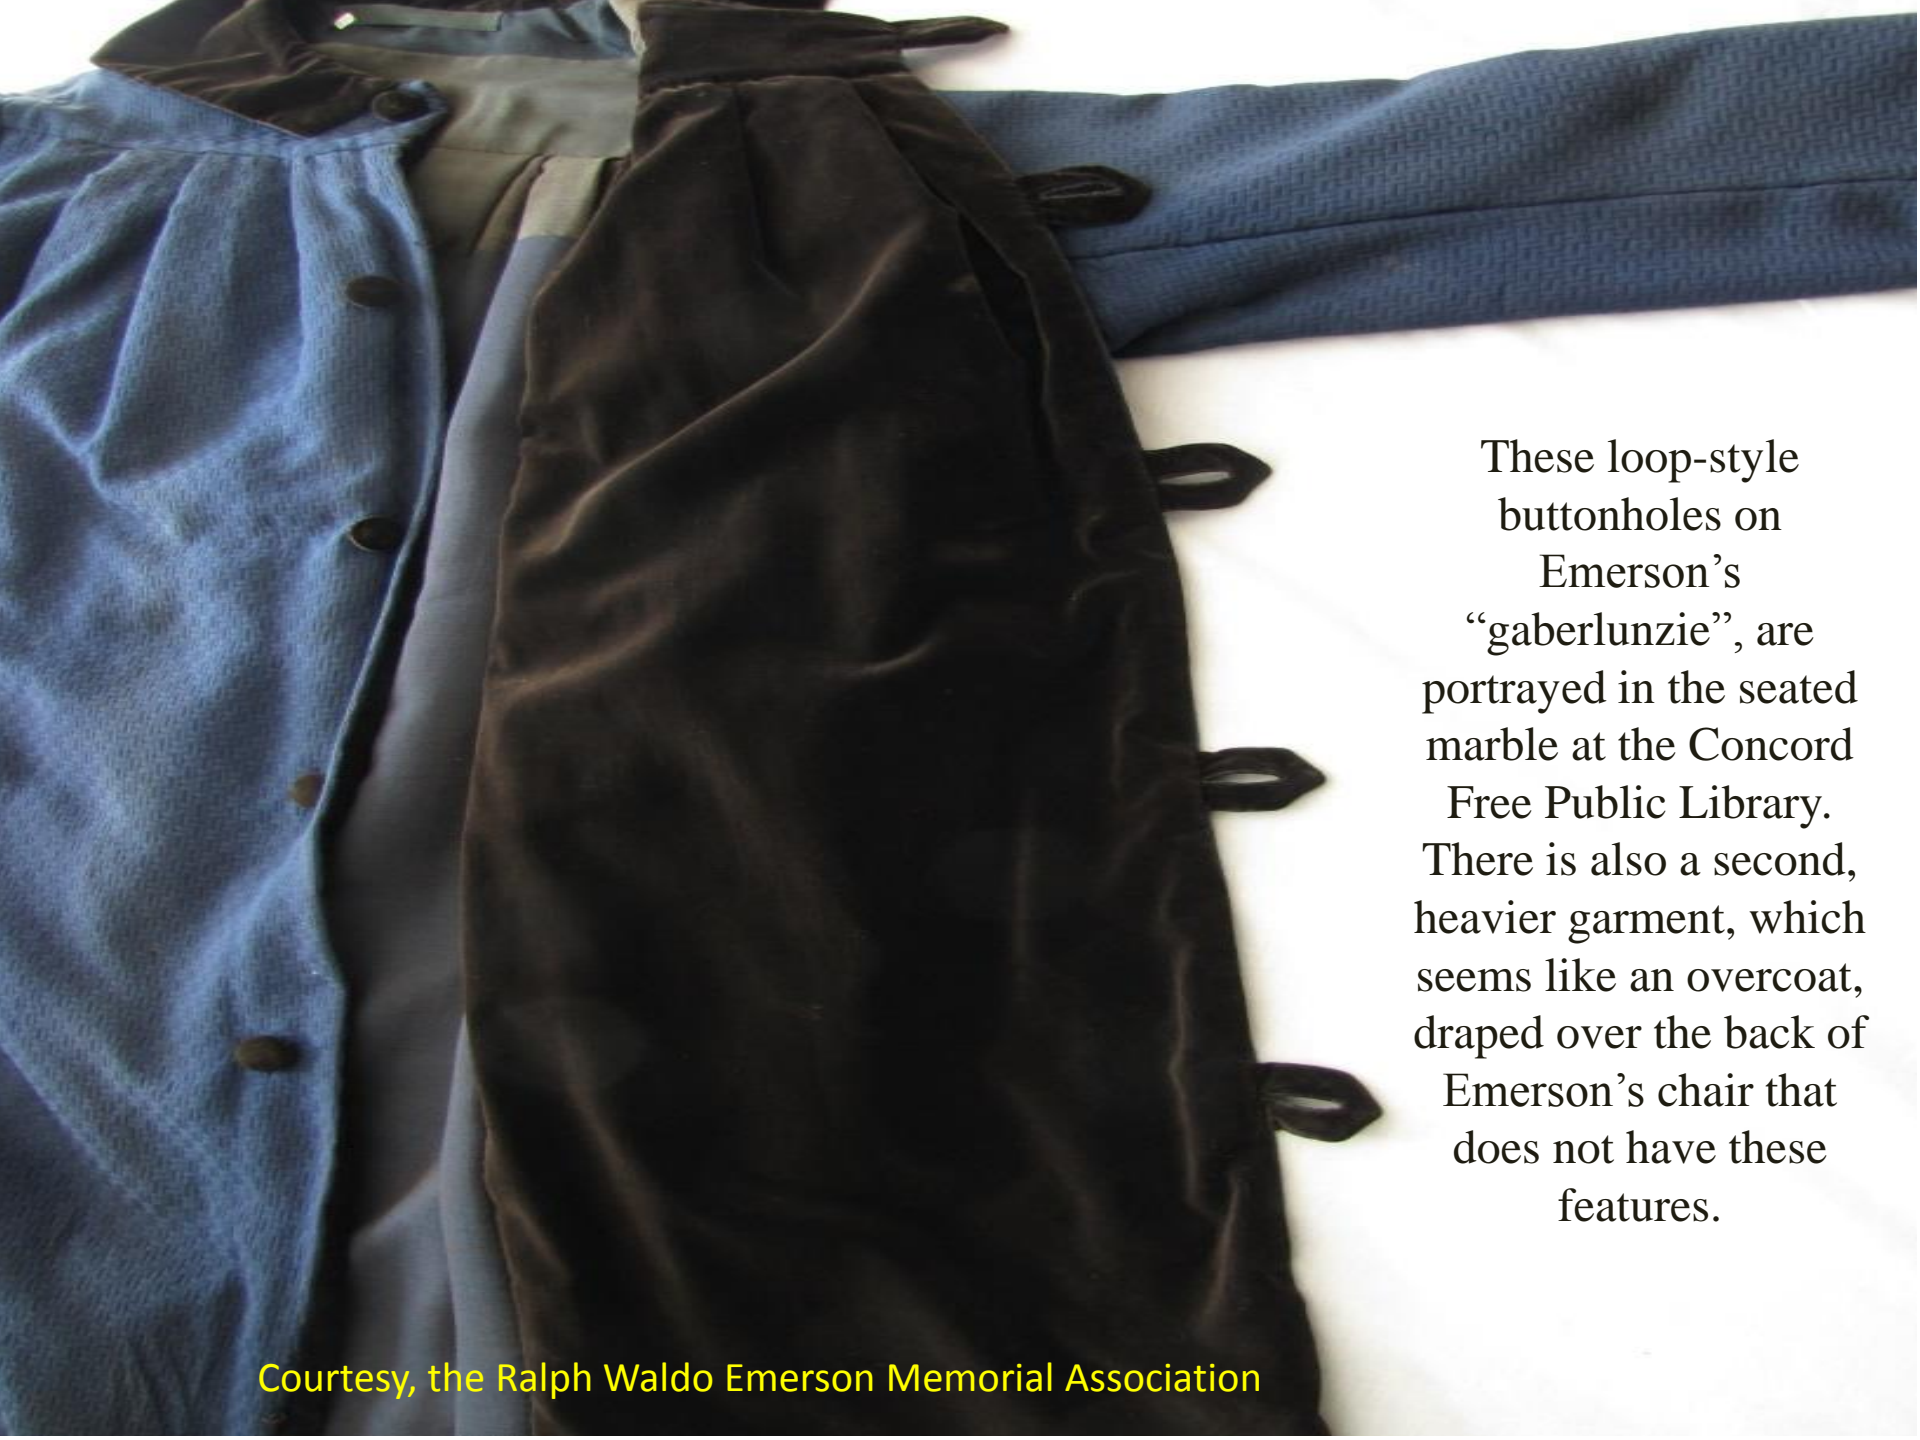

Courtesy, the Ralph Waldo Emerson Memorial Association

Courtesy, the Ralph Waldo Emerson Memorial Association

Courtesy, the Ralph Waldo Emerson Memorial Association

These loop-style buttonholes on Emerson's "gaberlunzie", are portrayed in the seated marble at the Concord Free Public Library. There is also a second, heavier garment, which seems like an overcoat, draped over the back of Emerson's chair that does not have these features.